Painting - JoAnne Schlicher

The City of Platteville has its own scaffolding. JoAnne Schlicher was wondering if we could paint the auditorium ourselves. Marilyn Gottschalk will contact Steve Kleefisch to discover where the scaffolding might be. We need information on insurance coverage by the city and whether we'd be covered working on the scaffolding. We'd also need to get an estimate of amount of paint needed (1 gallon = 400 sq feet), cost of paint and materials, then need to choose the colors and get City Council approval. To avoid interfering with renters, if we are doing our own painting, we should consider switching from painting in January/February to the summer months when fewer events are scheduled in the auditorium. In any case, we would need to create a timeframe for painting,

Spring Variety/Talent Show

Cheryl Schmieder will call Summer Hamille to see if she is ready to set a date. Kerry McCabe is willing to act as a coordinator for the event.

Roundtable

Patrice Steiner emailed members suggesting we add the cost of the dumpster to the Auditorium Seating Project. Since Kerry McCabe contacted Faherty's initially for the dumpster, she'll contact them for the cost incurred.

Marilyn has a readers' theater piece in mind called 'Ancestral Voices'. Cheryl Schmieder was wondering if it would be appropriate for Heritage Days. Marilyn is going to re-read it to evaluate what might be appropriate.

Discussed the need to have a separate meeting to explore future productions.
